

Florida Court Interpreter Certification and Regulation Program
Registry of Provisionally Approved Court Interpreters
Haitian Creole Language

The provisionally approved designation represents the highest qualified state-level interpreter designation next below the certified and language skilled designations and shall be the preferred designation in the selection, appointment, staffing, or private retention of court interpreters when certified or language skilled court interpreters are unavailable. The provisionally approved court interpreter has yet to meet the minimum threshold scores on an oral performance examination sufficient to qualify for certification. This designation holds a certificate that is valid for two years, but is non-renewable. The provisionally approved designation is time-limited and language-specific to one time, per language, per interpreter. Provisionally approved court interpreters must become certified within two years following designation or shall forfeit the designation.
